LANDSCAPE AS FETISH Artists shape landscapes to reflect their desires, to heighten their projections, to satisfy their arguments. The art can't match nature's complexity, but it can teach us about our own. Greer Muldowney curates; artists include Jesse Burke and Jonathan Gitelson. Aug. 7-29. Gallery Kayafas, 450 Harrison Ave. 617-482-0411, www.gallerykayafas.com

THE SPACESUITS: IT'S AFTER THE END OF THE WORLD The Spacesuits collective of artists and musicians ends its summer tour with a performance at the Lily Pad in Cambridge on Thursday, and this Afro-futurist-themed exhibition. Aug. 7-22. The Distillery Gallery, 516 East 2nd St., South Boston. www.distillerygallery.com

CHRISTINE VAILLANCOURT & KX2: RUTH AVRA + DANA KLEINMAN Vaillancourt and the sister duo KX2 each craft geometric abstractions. Vaillancourt's paintings mix a 1950s aesthetic with references to 21st-century technology. KX2 use the circle to investigate mysticism, science, and the cosmos. Through Aug. 22. Lanoue Gallery, 450 Harrison Ave. 617-262-4400, www.lanouegallery.com
